

I am a New Jersean who has to rely on the do not call law and I support the governor because it is impossible for someone to be at peace without these telemarketers calling at night, dinner time and even in the morning. I think is time to stop this and I think the state of New Jersey is right.